Harlem's monumental history and diverse culture comes to mind when thinking of Upper Manhattan's unique treasures. Experience them with your own wallet sized travel guide to shopping, dining, touring, and historic locations.

Taste the scrumptious variety of international cuisines, including Caribbean, Asian, Italian, Hispanic, Soul Food and many more. Another engaging part of uptown's rising restaurant culture is a melodious music scene, to compliment your meal.

From fine dining, take out, or a quick cocktail you are sure to find a place that could quickly turn into your home away from home! Restaurants, diners, bars, lounges, and cafes are now all within your grasp!

Explore too, the many places of interest that serve as home to Harlem's rich and authentic culture.

Visiting Uptown's museums, theaters, landmark parks and jazz clubs, will leave you with wonderful memories and an intriguing interest to return for more.

Your map explores locations all over Upper Manhattan, including the Upper West Side, Morningside Heights, East and Central Harlem, Manhattanville, Hamilton Heights/Sugar Hill, Washington Heights, and Inwood. Make Harlem One Stop your number one destination for accessing the real experience of culture and history in Upper Manhattan.

harlem from the folks who live here.

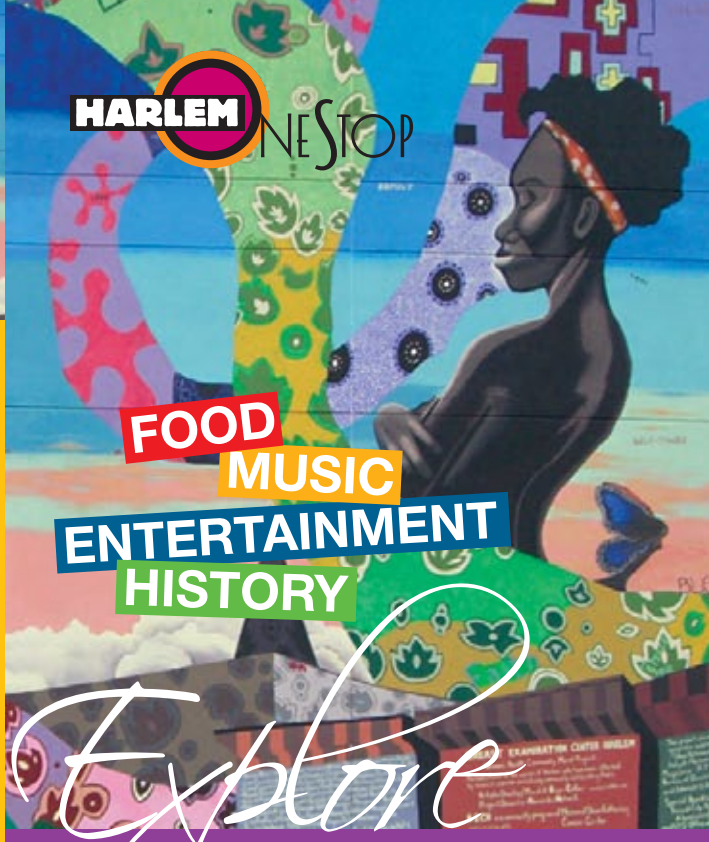

To have an individual walking tour some guides require a group minimum of 10 persons. For group day and specialty tours, customized packages may be arranged and planned to include lunch or dinner selected from a smorgasbord of diverse menus offered by the best of Harlem's restaurants. All tours are led by a licensed New York City guide and local historian. Tour prices vary by group size and tour format. For reservations call 1-212-939-9201.
